

How we're cutting fees.

We're as keen as you are to make your home loan work hard for you. That's why with the UHomeLoan, UBank is keeping fees to a minimum.

No UBank fees whatsoever on our variable rate UHomeLoan.

- Application fees: There are absolutely no application fees when you apply for a UHomeLoan.
- Ongoing fees: There are no regular account keeping fees to worry about once your UHomeLoan is up and running.
- Exit fees: With a variable UHomeLoan if you decide, for whatever reason, to pay out your loan early or to switch to another lender we won't charge you an exit fee.

What you need to know about our fixed rate UHomeLoan.

There are a couple of costs you need to know when you have a fixed rate UHomeLoan. We've listed these below so there are no nasty surprises:

1. Fixed rate fee
 - With a fixed UHomeLoan your rate is automatically locked in as at the date of your application. A Fixed Rate fee of $395 is payable to guard against any rate increases between the date of your application and settlement (provided your loan settles within 90 days). This fee is waived for fixed rate loans that settle on or after 10 July 2020 until further notice. This offer may be varied or withdrawn by UBank at any time.
2. Break costs
 - If all or part of a fixed UHomeLoan is paid out early, or if you choose to change your fixed rate to a variable rate or a different fixed rate before your current fixed rate period ends, you may pay break costs. These costs compensate the lender for any loss incurred when you "break" a fixed rate period for any reason. Break costs vary and can be expensive, so we recommend that you contact UBank to discuss the details should you be looking to break a fixed rate loan.

Additional costs

- Please note the Government usually charges fees for setting up your home loan. These may include stamp duty and registration fees. You may also incur costs from third parties, like any lawyers, conveyancers, building inspectors etc that you use.

Money in and money out.

You can make payments to and from your UHomeLoan in a number of different ways. What's even better is UBank won't charge you a cent to debit or credit your UHomeLoan account, please check with your external bank whether they have any fees and charges.
